

The Atrium at Navesink Harbor's Guide to Red Bank, New Jersey

At The Atrium at Navesink Harbor, we encourage you to live the best, most exciting life you can. Along with engaging programming and amenities in our community, we've become experts at recommendations of things to do in the surrounding area of Red Bank, New Jersey. Whether you're looking for something to explore your creative side or a delicious dining experience, there's something for everyone in the area. Keep reading for a few of our favorites.

Things to Do in Red Bank, New Jersey

Two River Theater: Right next door to The Atrium, you'll find a venue recognized in the national theater community for its new-play commissioning program. Two River Theater always has something going on, producing six or more theatrical productions a year and dozens of events that reflect the diversity of the Red Bank community.

Shopping: There's no shortage of boutiques and shops in Red Bank, from antique stores to big-name retailers like Tiffany & Co. Spend an afternoon window shopping numerous storefronts, while walking around the beautiful downtown area.

Pazzo MMX: You don't have to go far for quality Italian food. Less than a five-minute walk from The Atrium is Pazzo MMX, where the freshest ingredients are used from local farmers, as well as, importers direct from Italy. Stop by for Prix Fixe Tuesday where you'll find three courses of delectable food, or try the classic penne alla vodka any day of the week.

Yestercades: When was the last time you played classic games like PacMan and Galaga? Yestercades is a unique amenity in the community that gives you a blast from the past playing the arcade games from your teenage years. This is especially fun for family gatherings where you have a chance to show off your pinball skills to the grandkids.

Outdoor Recreation: Enjoy the great outdoors in one of Red Bank's numerous parks and outdoor nature areas. Riverside Gardens Park is a picturesque waterfront park offering walking trails, picnic spots, a boardwalk, seasonal music events and more.

The Atrium at Navesink Harbor's Guide to Red Bank, New Jersey

Chetkin Gallery: Located in a charming historic building, Chetkin Gallery is an International Fine Art Gallery with a special emphasis on Contemporary European painters. Two floors of stunning masterpieces feature an ambiance reminiscent of classical, post and contemporary impressionism.

Take Part in Waterfront Senior Living at The Atrium at Navesink Harbor

As the only full-service, waterfront continuing care retirement community in New Jersey, The Atrium at Navesink Harbor is a special place to call home. With engaging amenities like a gorgeous courtyard and private pontoon boat, you have everything you need to enjoy an active lifestyle. And, if you're looking to explore the area or take a day trip to show off the city and area attractions to visiting family members, transportation is available to get you where you want to go.

Contact us today to learn more about senior living in Red Bank, New Jersey, and schedule your personal tour.